

TOPIC

Inventory Management System for Retailers

This application manages the inventory retailers meets by storing the data in an database

It help retailers track and manage stocks related to their own products

This project can be improved by understanding the sales patterns, and give suggestions accordingly

This project aims to convey a message to the retailers regarding the ow of stock via email alert